Hi Matt, just checking in on this. Are we good for signatures?

Matt,

Good evening. I've attached what I believe to be final copies of the agreement and the letter (with Brian's contact information filled in). If these meet your approval, please have Ms. Kermani sign. Once we have the signed letter (an emailed copy will suffice while the original is in the mail), we will have Brian execute the settlement.

Thanks,

Kevin

Matt,

We are fine with your rewording in #1 below. For #2, Plaintiffs originally insisted that the letter be separate from the settlement agreement, which we accepted. Including the language you propose would be a course reversal – and we do not agree with the wording in any event – so rather than argue about it, we deleted it. The attached letter reflects those changes, as well as two other nits in redline.

For the settlement agreement, it appears that your “redline” did not have any changes to the edits proposed in our 10/13 version. I have attached a “clean” (i.e., renamed) version of the same. If the changes to the letter are acceptable, then we have a deal. Please confirm at your earliest opportunity.

Thanks,

Kevin

Two small edits to the letter:

1. [REDACTED]. I reworded it so that we don't have to argue about it.
2. We'd like the letter to reference to the Settlement Agreement, so I added that sentence.

If we're agreed on these points, we can agree to your changes to the Settlement Agreement (including Garland), and we'll be done.
